

Times-Virginian

WEDNESDAY, AUG. 6, 1919

Published by the Times-Virginian Company, Inc., at Lynchburg, Va.
 Entered as second-class matter September 21st, 1879, under Post Office No. 112, at Lynchburg, Va., under Act of March 3, 1879.
 Postpaid Weekly at Appomattox, Va.

Published Weekly at Appomattox, Va.

THE ELECTION

At the hour of printing this paper returns from the election are meagre. The vote in this county was about 450, probably half a vote, but there was no opposition for any candidate and S. L. Ferguson, candidate for the unexpired term of the late Senator Gayle, was elected without opposition.

The election in Campbell county and the city of Lynchburg was quite spirited. The returns indicate the election of Hon. Robert Russell by 450 majority over Hon. A. F. Thomas for the Senate. Dickie wins over Githner for House of Delegates.

The Buckingham Union Lawn party at Old Union church, Saturday, 7th, 2 p. m. Supper at 5. Everybody come, and welcome.

Mrs. A. A. Austin was guest of her sister, Mrs. W. H. Seay, Sunday.

We are sorry to report a very small crop of fruit.

Mr. and Mrs. Slider and Mr. Pomp Goin and sister, Miss Nannie, visited their sister, Mrs. Leo Stanley, Sunday.

We are glad to note that Mr. Pete Goin has returned home. Miss Annie and Ellie Seay are spending a short vacation with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Abner Seay.

News is scarce. Good luck to the Times and its readers.

GEORGE W. DAY

Died Tuesday, July 29, after an illness of one week of pneumonia. He is survived by his wife and eight children and the following sisters and brothers: Mrs. Isabell Turner, Miss Willie Ann Day and Daisy Day.

Funeral services were conducted by Rev. Langley at Murray cemetery on Wednesday afternoon.

Deceased was 50 years old. He will be greatly missed by all who knew him. A good man has gone to his heavenly home. The prayer and sympathy of the entire community go out to the bereaved wife and family.

Hixburg

Protracted services begin at the Baptist church at this place on Sunday, 10th inst. Dr. Wick of Richmond, will do the preaching. Everybody cordially invited.

Now that we are having some good weather, why not wear a broad smile? Mr. and Mrs. Brown, of Washington, D. C., are on a visit to Mrs. Brown's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Holycross.

Mr. Shirley Davis, of McDonald, W. Va., is at home for a few days this week.

Mr. Ira Burrell has recently purchased a saw mill and expects to operate a block plant in the near future.

Nearly all the early tobacco in this section is being cut green to prevent a total loss.

Mr. John Cunningham delivered a most excellent sermon in the Presbyterian church here Sunday. And I must say that Mr. Cunningham has a special talent for music.

We notice the road force is camping here this week.

Strange to say, people will stand by their raising, let go or come what may. I know people who say they must have corn bread twice a day, that they were raised on it.

We have had the Appomattox Association here with us and no spread on the church yard, and a small attendance, while five or six from near by motored to Chestnut Grove, where loaves and fishes were in abundance with the James River Association—a drive of nearly forty miles.

Evergreen

A most interesting and impressive protracted meeting was held last week at the Baptist church here by Rev. Loflin, of Church Road, ably assisted by the pastor, Rev. Hobbs. The preaching of Rev. Loflin was of a high degree of excellence—strong, clear and scriptural. The people of this church were very much pleased with his manner of conducting the meeting as well as with his preaching. As a result of this meeting there were 24 professions of faith.

Miss Lucy Bennett and Elmer Warren are the guests of Mrs. C. A. Warren.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Staples are the proud parents of a boy.

Mrs. O. C. Paulette and children visited Mrs. L. M. Southall at Pamplin, Sunday.

Miss Earl Farrar has returned from a visit to Pamplin.

Mrs. T. E. LeGrand is visiting relatives in Greys.

Miss Ethel Miller visited friends at Appomattox on Sunday.

Ver

A great many of our people attended the meeting of the James River Association at Chestnut Grove church, in Buckingham, last week. I am sure everyone who went enjoyed himself and would like to go again. We all can testify that the ladies of Chestnut Grove community are culinary experts. Evidently they have not felt the effects of the sugar panic, but it is to be feared that they will, after the wonderful feast they gave last week.

Mrs. Winnie Morgan and Mrs. Mattie Coleman are spending this week at the home of their brother, Mr. Lewis Coleman. Miss Emma Robertson, of Lynchburg, is at home this week.

Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Coleman and children, of Richmond, have returned home after visiting their parents here.

Mr. A. H. Abbott is this week and guest of his brother, R. W. Abbott.

Mr. and Mrs. George Tweedy and Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Caldwell, of Campbell, spent Sunday with Mrs. Rosa Abbott.

Mr. Norvell Woodson and son, Wilbur, of Richmond, motored last week to the home of Mrs. Thomas Harvey.

Miss Laura Abbott, of Amherst, is spending this week

Commissioners' Sale of Valuable Farm and Timber Land in Buckingham County.

By virtue of a decree of the Circuit Court of Buckingham county, entered at the May Term, 1919, in the suit of Lizzie W. Meredith and others vs. Jervill Williams and others the undersigned Commissioners will offer for sale, as public auction, on the premises near Sheppard, Va., at 1 p. m. on TUESDAY, AUGUST 12th, 1919, Two certain tracts or parcels of land designated as tracts No. 2 and 3 on a plat of the Pleasant W. Meredith property made by R. C. Bodi, June 18, 1919.

Tract No. 2 contains 22 acres. It has on it about 25 acres of excellent bottom land now in cultivation, and about 4 acres of excellent timber land in cultivation, and the balance of over 100 acres in virgin forest timber of pine and oak.

Tract No. 3 contains 121 acres and has on it about 10 acres of excellent bottom land in cultivation, and about 30 acres of excellent timber land in cultivation, and the balance of nearly 100 acres is in virgin forest of pine and oak.

The timber on this property has never been cut, and is one of the very highest grades.

The two tracts are located about seven miles from Fallowville and Prospect, and can be reached over good roads from both places.

The two tracts will be offered separately and then as a whole together, and will be knocked out to the purchaser or purchasers at the highest bid. This is an excellent opportunity to secure high class farming land and also a very valuable timber tract within easy access of the railroad.

Any one desiring to inspect this property before sale can communicate with J. K. Lockhart, Sheppard, Va.

Terms—One-third cash, and balance in two and two years with interest on deferred payments, taking the purchaser's note for the cash payment, and title retained until the purchase money is paid in full; no time to be cut out of the said terms to be given by the purchaser.

Deeds and rent for the year 1919 to be paid on or before the day of the sale.

T. G. BOBBS and ERNEST JONES, Commissioners.

The bond required by the above decree has been duly executed by the aforesaid Commissioners.

Witness: W. J. Hubbard, Clerk.

With her home people here.

Miss Gladys Smith, of Appomattox, is visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Gordon. Mr. and Mrs. Henry Garret and Mrs. Asa Carmel, of Richmond, are visiting relatives in the neighborhood.

We extend to everyone a cordial invitation to attend the meetings now in progress at New Hope church. Come once and hear Mr. Hobbs, and you won't wait for an invitation to come again.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Staples are the proud parents of a boy.

Mrs. O. C. Paulette and children visited Mrs. L. M. Southall at Pamplin, Sunday.

Miss Earl Farrar has returned from a visit to Pamplin.

Mrs. T. E. LeGrand is visiting relatives in Greys.

Miss Ethel Miller visited friends at Appomattox on Sunday.

Ver

A great many of our people attended the meeting of the James River Association at Chestnut Grove church, in Buckingham, last week. I am sure everyone who went enjoyed himself and would like to go again. We all can testify that the ladies of Chestnut Grove community are culinary experts. Evidently they have not felt the effects of the sugar panic, but it is to be feared that they will, after the wonderful feast they gave last week.

Mrs. Winnie Morgan and Mrs. Mattie Coleman are spending this week at the home of their brother, Mr. Lewis Coleman. Miss Emma Robertson, of Lynchburg, is at home this week.

Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Coleman and children, of Richmond, have returned home after visiting their parents here.

Mr. A. H. Abbott is this week and guest of his brother, R. W. Abbott.

Mr. and Mrs. George Tweedy and Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Caldwell, of Campbell, spent Sunday with Mrs. Rosa Abbott.

Mr. Norvell Woodson and son, Wilbur, of Richmond, motored last week to the home of Mrs. Thomas Harvey.

Miss Laura Abbott, of Amherst, is spending this week

Commissioners' Sale of Valuable Farm and Timber Land in Buckingham County.

By virtue of a decree of the Circuit Court of Buckingham county, entered at the May Term, 1919, in the suit of Lizzie W. Meredith and others vs. Jervill Williams and others the undersigned Commissioners will offer for sale, as public auction, on the premises near Sheppard, Va., at 1 p. m. on TUESDAY, AUGUST 12th, 1919, Two certain tracts or parcels of land designated as tracts No. 2 and 3 on a plat of the Pleasant W. Meredith property made by R. C. Bodi, June 18, 1919.

Tract No. 2 contains 22 acres. It has on it about 25 acres of excellent bottom land now in cultivation, and about 4 acres of excellent timber land in cultivation, and the balance of over 100 acres in virgin forest timber of pine and oak.

Tract No. 3 contains 121 acres and has on it about 10 acres of excellent bottom land in cultivation, and about 30 acres of excellent timber land in cultivation, and the balance of nearly 100 acres is in virgin forest of pine and oak.

The timber on this property has never been cut, and is one of the very highest grades.

The two tracts are located about seven miles from Fallowville and Prospect, and can be reached over good roads from both places.

The two tracts will be offered separately and then as a whole together, and will be knocked out to the purchaser or purchasers at the highest bid. This is an excellent opportunity to secure high class farming land and also a very valuable timber tract within easy access of the railroad.

Any one desiring to inspect this property before sale can communicate with J. K. Lockhart, Sheppard, Va.

Terms—One-third cash, and balance in two and two years with interest on deferred payments, taking the purchaser's note for the cash payment, and title retained until the purchase money is paid in full; no time to be cut out of the said terms to be given by the purchaser.

Deeds and rent for the year 1919 to be paid on or before the day of the sale.

T. G. BOBBS and ERNEST JONES, Commissioners.

The bond required by the above decree has been duly executed by the aforesaid Commissioners.

Witness: W. J. Hubbard, Clerk.

Hurtsville

We are truly glad to note Mr. Morton Jennings is back from France, where he was in service for some time. Mr. Lacy Morris is back also, having come home with Mr. Jennings. Mr. Morris served his country as an artilleryman.

Two autos of Messrs. Chick and Gilliam got stuck good in Moseley's ford Sunday while going over to the tabernacle in Buckingham.

Mr. J. T. Scruggs is going to move his saw mill to his place soon, and Mr. Charlie Johnson is going to build a barn in the near future.

Mr. Arthur Scruggs brought home a new Ford.

J. O. Hannah has been given authority on alfalfa growing. It is out that the worst enemy of alfalfa is the South crab grass, could be controlled by limiting. While there were many whose observations convinced them that this was not true and some of them so stated the error was generally accepted as truth and given wide publicity.

It is a well known fact that on certain lime lands crab grass does not generally grow freely, and on such lands it gives no serious trouble as a general rule. But where crab grass does grow well there is some other reason in addition to the presence of an abundance of lime. Or at least lime alone will not prevent the luxuriant growth of crab grass. The writer has under observation a plot of land which has

Our Country's Birth. Our country's independence from July 4, 1776, because the States then declared its independence from Great Britain acknowledged the independence of the United States. A preliminary treaty of peace was signed on September 3, 1782, and by the definitive treaty dated September 3, 1783. This treaty was ratified by the continental congress January 17, 1784.

Our Country's Birth. Our country's independence from July 4, 1776, because the States then declared its independence from Great Britain acknowledged the independence of the United States. A preliminary treaty of peace was signed on September 3, 1782, and by the definitive treaty dated September 3, 1783. This treaty was ratified by the continental congress January 17, 1784.

Our Country's Birth. Our country's independence from July 4, 1776, because the States then declared its independence from Great Britain acknowledged the independence of the United States. A preliminary treaty of peace was signed on September 3, 1782, and by the definitive treaty dated September 3, 1783. This treaty was ratified by the continental congress January 17, 1784.

Our Country's Birth. Our country's independence from July 4, 1776, because the States then declared its independence from Great Britain acknowledged the independence of the United States. A preliminary treaty of peace was signed on September 3, 1782, and by the definitive treaty dated September 3, 1783. This treaty was ratified by the continental congress January 17, 1784.

Our Country's Birth. Our country's independence from July 4, 1776, because the States then declared its independence from Great Britain acknowledged the independence of the United States. A preliminary treaty of peace was signed on September 3, 1782, and by the definitive treaty dated September 3, 1783. This treaty was ratified by the continental congress January 17, 1784.

Our Country's Birth. Our country's independence from July 4, 1776, because the States then declared its independence from Great Britain acknowledged the independence of the United States. A preliminary treaty of peace was signed on September 3, 1782, and by the definitive treaty dated September 3, 1783. This treaty was ratified by the continental congress January 17, 1784.

Our Country's Birth. Our country's independence from July 4, 1776, because the States then declared its independence from Great Britain acknowledged the independence of the United States. A preliminary treaty of peace was signed on September 3, 1782, and by the definitive treaty dated September 3, 1783. This treaty was ratified by the continental congress January 17, 1784.

Our Country's Birth. Our country's independence from July 4, 1776, because the States then declared its independence from Great Britain acknowledged the independence of the United States. A preliminary treaty of peace was signed on September 3, 1782, and by the definitive treaty dated September 3, 1783. This treaty was ratified by the continental congress January 17, 1784.

Our Country's Birth. Our country's independence from July 4, 1776, because the States then declared its independence from Great Britain acknowledged the independence of the United States. A preliminary treaty of peace was signed on September 3, 1782, and by the definitive treaty dated September 3, 1783. This treaty was ratified by the continental congress January 17, 1784.

Our Country's Birth. Our country's independence from July 4, 1776, because the States then declared its independence from Great Britain acknowledged the independence of the United States. A preliminary treaty of peace was signed on September 3, 1782, and by the definitive treaty dated September 3, 1783. This treaty was ratified by the continental congress January 17, 1784.

Our Country's Birth. Our country's independence from July 4, 1776, because the States then declared its independence from Great Britain acknowledged the independence of the United States. A preliminary treaty of peace was signed on September 3, 1782, and by the definitive treaty dated September 3, 1783. This treaty was ratified by the continental congress January 17, 1784.

Our Country's Birth. Our country's independence from July 4, 1776, because the States then declared its independence from Great Britain acknowledged the independence of the United States. A preliminary treaty of peace was signed on September 3, 1782, and by the definitive treaty dated September 3, 1783. This treaty was ratified by the continental congress January 17, 1784.

Our Country's Birth. Our country's independence from July 4, 1776, because the States then declared its independence from Great Britain acknowledged the independence of the United States. A preliminary treaty of peace was signed on September 3, 1782, and by the definitive treaty dated September 3, 1783. This treaty was ratified by the continental congress January 17, 1784.

Our Country's Birth. Our country's independence from July 4, 1776, because the States then declared its independence from Great Britain acknowledged the independence of the United States. A preliminary treaty of peace was signed on September 3, 1782, and by the definitive treaty dated September 3, 1783. This treaty was ratified by the continental congress January 17, 1784.

Our Country's Birth. Our country's independence from July 4, 1776, because the States then declared its independence from Great Britain acknowledged the independence of the United States. A preliminary treaty of peace was signed on September 3, 1782, and by the definitive treaty dated September 3, 1783. This treaty was ratified by the continental congress January 17, 1784.

Our Country's Birth. Our country's independence from July 4, 1776, because the States then declared its independence from Great Britain acknowledged the independence of the United States. A preliminary treaty of peace was signed on September 3, 1782, and by the definitive treaty dated September 3, 1783. This treaty was ratified by the continental congress January 17, 1784.

Our Country's Birth. Our country's independence from July 4, 1776, because the States then declared its independence from Great Britain acknowledged the independence of the United States. A preliminary treaty of peace was signed on September 3, 1782, and by the definitive treaty dated September 3, 1783. This treaty was ratified by the continental congress January 17, 1784.

Our Country's Birth. Our country's independence from July 4, 1776, because the States then declared its independence from Great Britain acknowledged the independence of the United States. A preliminary treaty of peace was signed on September 3, 1782, and by the definitive treaty dated September 3, 1783. This treaty was ratified by the continental congress January 17, 1784.

Our Country's Birth. Our country's independence from July 4, 1776, because the States then declared its independence from Great Britain acknowledged the independence of the United States. A preliminary treaty of peace was signed on September 3, 1782, and by the definitive treaty dated September 3, 1783. This treaty was ratified by the continental congress January 17, 1784.

Our Country's Birth. Our country's independence from July 4, 1776, because the States then declared its independence from Great Britain acknowledged the independence of the United States. A preliminary treaty of peace was signed on September 3, 1782, and by the definitive treaty dated September 3, 1783. This treaty was ratified by the continental congress January 17, 1784.

Our Country's Birth. Our country's independence from July 4, 1776, because the States then declared its independence from Great Britain acknowledged the independence of the United States. A preliminary treaty of peace was signed on September 3, 1782, and by the definitive treaty dated September 3, 1783. This treaty was ratified by the continental congress January 17, 1784.

Our Country's Birth. Our country's independence from July 4, 1776, because the States then declared its independence from Great Britain acknowledged the independence of the United States. A preliminary treaty of peace was signed on September 3, 1782, and by the definitive treaty dated September 3, 1783. This treaty was ratified by the continental congress January 17, 1784.

Our Country's Birth. Our country's independence from July 4, 1776, because the States then declared its independence from Great Britain acknowledged the independence of the United States. A preliminary treaty of peace was signed on September 3, 1782, and by the definitive treaty dated September 3, 1783. This treaty was ratified by the continental congress January 17, 1784.

Our Country's Birth. Our country's independence from July 4, 1776, because the States then declared its independence from Great Britain acknowledged the independence of the United States. A preliminary treaty of peace was signed on September 3, 1782, and by the definitive treaty dated September 3, 1783. This treaty was ratified by the continental congress January 17, 1784.

Our Country's Birth. Our country's independence from July 4, 1776, because the States then declared its independence from Great Britain acknowledged the independence of the United States. A preliminary treaty of peace was signed on September 3, 1782, and by the definitive treaty dated September 3, 1783. This treaty was ratified by the continental congress January 17, 1784.

Our Country's Birth. Our country's independence from July 4, 1776, because the States then declared its independence from Great Britain acknowledged the independence of the United States. A preliminary treaty of peace was signed on September 3, 1782, and by the definitive treaty dated September 3, 1783. This treaty was ratified by the continental congress January 17, 1784.

Our Country's Birth. Our country's independence from July 4, 1776, because the States then declared its independence from Great Britain acknowledged the independence of the United States. A preliminary treaty of peace was signed on September 3, 1782, and by the definitive treaty dated September 3, 1783. This treaty was ratified by the continental congress January 17, 1784.

Our Country's Birth. Our country's independence from July 4, 1776, because the States then declared its independence from Great Britain acknowledged the independence of the United States. A preliminary treaty of peace was signed on September 3, 1782, and by the definitive treaty dated September 3, 1783. This treaty was ratified by the continental congress January 17, 1784.

Our Country's Birth. Our country's independence from July 4, 1776, because the States then declared its independence from Great Britain acknowledged the independence of the United States. A preliminary treaty of peace was signed on September 3, 1782, and by the definitive treaty dated September 3, 1783. This treaty was ratified by the continental congress January 17, 1784.

Our Country's Birth. Our country's independence from July 4, 1776, because the States then declared its independence from Great Britain acknowledged the independence of the United States. A preliminary treaty of peace was signed on September 3, 1782, and by the definitive treaty dated September 3, 1783. This treaty was ratified by the continental congress January 17, 1784.

Our Country's Birth. Our country's independence from July 4, 1776, because the States then declared its independence from Great Britain acknowledged the independence of the United States. A preliminary treaty of peace was signed on September 3, 1782, and by the definitive treaty dated September 3, 1783. This treaty was ratified by the continental congress January 17, 1784.

Our Country's Birth. Our country's independence from July 4, 1776, because the States then declared its independence from Great Britain acknowledged the independence of the United States. A preliminary treaty of peace was signed on September 3, 1782, and by the definitive treaty dated September 3, 1783. This treaty was ratified by the continental congress January 17, 1784.

Our Country's Birth. Our country's independence from July 4, 1776, because the States then declared its independence from Great Britain acknowledged the independence of the United States. A preliminary treaty of peace was signed on September 3, 1782, and by the definitive treaty dated September 3, 1783. This treaty was ratified by the continental congress January 17, 1784.

Our Country's Birth. Our country's independence from July 4, 1776, because the States then declared its independence from Great Britain acknowledged the independence of the United States. A preliminary treaty of peace was signed on September 3, 1782, and by the definitive treaty dated September 3, 1783. This treaty was ratified by the continental congress January 17, 1784.

Our Country's Birth. Our country's independence from July 4, 1776, because the States then declared its independence from Great Britain acknowledged the independence of the United States. A preliminary treaty of peace was signed on September 3, 1782, and by the definitive treaty dated September 3, 1783. This treaty was ratified by the continental congress January 17, 1784.

Our Country's Birth. Our country's independence from July 4, 1776, because the States then declared its independence from Great Britain acknowledged the independence of the United States. A preliminary treaty of peace was signed on September 3, 1782, and by the definitive treaty dated September 3, 1783. This treaty was ratified by the continental congress January 17, 1784.

Our Country's Birth. Our country's independence from July 4, 1776, because the States then declared its independence from Great Britain acknowledged the independence of the United States. A preliminary treaty of peace was signed on September 3, 1782, and by the definitive treaty dated September 3, 1783. This treaty was ratified by the continental congress January 17, 1784.

Our Country's Birth. Our country's independence from July 4, 1776, because the States then declared its independence from Great Britain acknowledged the independence of the United States. A preliminary treaty of peace was signed on September 3, 1782, and by the definitive treaty dated September 3, 1783. This treaty was ratified by the continental congress January 17, 1784.

Our Country's Birth. Our country's independence from July 4, 1776, because the States then declared its independence from Great Britain acknowledged the independence of the United States. A preliminary treaty of peace was signed on September 3, 1782, and by the definitive treaty dated September 3, 1783. This treaty was ratified by the continental congress January 17, 1784.

Our Country's Birth. Our country's independence from July 4, 1776, because the States then declared its independence from Great Britain acknowledged the independence of the United States. A preliminary treaty of peace was signed on September 3, 1782, and by the definitive treaty dated September 3, 1783. This treaty was ratified by the continental congress January 17, 1784.

Our Country's Birth. Our country's independence from July 4, 1776, because the States then declared its independence from Great Britain acknowledged the independence of the United States. A preliminary treaty of peace was signed on September 3, 1782, and by the definitive treaty dated September 3, 1783. This treaty was ratified by the continental congress January 17, 1784.

Lime Not a Protection Against Crab Grass

Some years ago a popular authority on alfalfa growing gave it out that the worst enemy of alfalfa is the South crab grass, could be controlled by limiting. While there were many whose observations convinced them that this was not true and some of them so stated the error was generally accepted as truth and given wide publicity.

It is a well known fact that on certain lime lands crab grass does not generally grow freely, and on such lands it gives no serious trouble as a general rule. But where crab grass does grow well there is some other reason in addition to the presence of an abundance of lime. Or at least lime alone will not prevent the luxuriant growth of crab grass. The writer has under observation a plot of land which has

Our Country's Birth. Our country's independence from July 4, 1776, because the States then declared its independence from Great Britain acknowledged the independence of the United States. A preliminary treaty of peace was signed on September 3, 1782, and by the definitive treaty dated September 3, 1783. This treaty was ratified by the continental congress January 17, 1784.

Our Country's Birth. Our country's independence from July 4, 1776, because the States then declared its independence from Great Britain acknowledged the independence of the United States. A preliminary treaty of peace was signed on September 3, 1782, and by the definitive treaty dated September 3, 1783. This treaty was ratified by the continental congress January 17, 1784.

Our Country's Birth. Our country's independence from July 4, 1776, because the States then declared its independence from Great Britain acknowledged the independence of the United States. A preliminary treaty of peace was signed on September 3, 1782, and by the definitive treaty dated September 3, 1783. This treaty was ratified by the continental congress January 17, 1784.

Our Country's Birth. Our country's independence from July 4, 1776, because the States then declared its independence from Great Britain acknowledged the independence of the United States. A preliminary treaty of peace was signed on September 3, 1782, and by the definitive treaty dated September 3, 1783. This treaty was ratified by the continental congress January 17, 1784.

Our Country's Birth. Our country's independence from July 4, 1776, because the States then declared its independence from Great Britain acknowledged the independence of the United States. A preliminary treaty of peace was signed on September 3, 1782, and by the definitive treaty dated September 3, 1783. This treaty was ratified by the continental congress January 17, 1784.

Our Country's Birth. Our country's independence from July 4, 1776, because the States then declared its independence from Great Britain acknowledged the independence of the United States. A preliminary treaty of peace was signed on September 3, 1782, and by the definitive treaty dated September 3, 1783. This treaty was ratified by the continental congress January 17, 1784.

Our Country's Birth. Our country's independence from July 4, 1776, because the States then declared its independence from Great Britain acknowledged the independence of the United States. A preliminary treaty of peace was signed on September 3, 1782, and by the definitive treaty dated September 3, 1783. This treaty was ratified by the continental congress January 17, 1784.

Our Country's Birth. Our country's independence from July 4, 1776, because the States then declared its independence from Great Britain acknowledged the independence of the United States. A preliminary treaty of peace was signed on September 3, 1782, and by the definitive treaty dated September 3, 1783. This treaty was ratified by the continental congress January 17, 1784.

Our Country's Birth. Our country's independence from July 4, 1776, because the States then declared its independence from Great Britain acknowledged the independence of the United States. A preliminary treaty of peace was signed on September 3, 1782, and by the definitive treaty dated September 3, 1783. This treaty was ratified by the continental congress January 17, 1784.

Our Country's Birth. Our country's independence from July 4, 1776, because the States then declared its independence from Great Britain acknowledged the independence of the United States. A preliminary treaty of peace was signed on September 3, 1782, and by the definitive treaty dated September 3, 1783. This treaty was ratified by the continental congress January 17, 1784.

Our Country's Birth. Our country's independence from July 4,